IMSC 2014

20th International Mass Spectrometry Conference

August 24 – 29, 2014
Geneva, Switzerland

Organized by the Swiss Group for Mass Spectrometry (SGMS), the French Mass Spectrometry Society (SFSM) and the Division of Mass Spectrometry of the Italian Chemical Society (DSM).

GENÈVE
A WORLD OF ITS OWN®

20th International Mass Spectrometry Conference.

The 20th International Mass Spectrometry Conference will be held for the first time in Switzerland, in Geneva. Located in the French-speaking part of Switzerland, Geneva is a buoyant, international city with an excellent infrastructure. Many international organizations have their headquarters in Geneva, including the UN and the WHO. Located in the heart of Europe, close to the Swiss alps, and well connected to many destinations worldwide by air and train, Geneva is a popular city that hosts many international conferences. We proudly invite you to attend the 20th IMSC in Geneva!

20th IMSC

International Mass Spectrometry Conference

Geneva, Switzerland

August 24–29, 2014

Venue:

The conference will be held at the newly renovated International Conference Centre in Geneva (CICG; www.cicg.ch), a very modern, centrally located facility, which offers room for up to 2,200 persons.

Scientific Program:

The program will consist of plenary lectures (including award lectures, and a couple of plenaries outside the area of mass spectrometry) and a technical program of 4 parallel sessions, grouped around 7 main topics that will reflect the latest developments in mass spectrometry. Keynote and contributed oral presentations will be complemented by workshops and poster sessions.

Accommodations:

Geneva has a wide range of hotels – from five-star accommodations to an above average number of inexpensive accommodations for students and budget travelers that cost less than € 30 per night. 2,000 hotel rooms in all categories have already been reserved for 2014.

Exhibition and Sponsorship:

Exhibitors will present their latest developments in the field of mass spectrometry and allied topics. Sponsors will be able to select from different sponsoring packages. More detailed information will be available on the website or from the conference office in due time.

Conference Office:

The conference office will be in the hands of a professional conference organizer located in Geneva:
